The population density would be increased beyond the capacity of the area. This to include, but not limited to, parking, traffic, school capacity, water, sewage, garbage, parks, water supply.

I have a major concern with the duration of the project reported to take between 10-15 years. The streets that can barely support the local traffic will now be invaded by construction machinery.

The noise and air pollution to be endured by the residence over such a drastic contraction phase is not acceptable.

There is also a concern with lack of policing with an increased criminal element that comes with such massive projects.

Potential decrease in property values.

The proposed 30 floor towers will stand out like a sore thumb and will conform to the current height restrictions
